CORRECTION: ARTICLE IN TODAY'S AUSTRALIAN NEWSPAPER

The report in today's Media section of The Australian newspaper that Prime Media has resigned from Free TV Australia is incorrect.

Prime remains an active member of Free TV and continues to support the organisation and its various activities on behalf of the members.

We are always looking at better ways to market television as we have a great story to tell. These matters are still under consideration and we have nothing further to say at present.
